THE DAILY BULLETIN.

SATURDAY EVE., MARCH 22, 1894.

ARTHUR is acceptable to North Carolina, if he can carry Ohio and New York.

THOMAS W. SWAN is the Democratic nominee for Governor of Rhode Island.

Mr. JUSTICE MILLER, of Iowa, is mentioned by Iowa men as a Presidential possibility.

MATTHEW ARNOLO will not write a book on the United States. Will the gentleman favor us with a song?

PENNSYLVANIA delegates to the National Convention, so far as heard from, are instructed for Randall and Blaine.

The Republican primary elections at Philadelphia, for delegates to the State convention, resulted in a victory for the Blaine faction.

The French woman who called Minerva the God of wisdoms, should now dedicate her pursuit to raising Jupiter, for his late deluging favors.

The whisky distillers at Lexington in the event of the failure of the bonded extension bill will all export their entire stock in bond, as they will be unable to pay the taxes due.

The Virginia State Senate has instructed that a copy of the resolution asking Senator Manlove to resign, be sent to the U. S. Senate, with the request that it be read in the Senate.

The House Committee on Agriculture authorized a favorable report to be made on a bill to allow any person to manufacture wine or brandy out of apples, peaches, grapes and other perishable fruits raised by himself or his tenants, free from any internal revenue tax or restrictions.

Nip and Tuck.
Of this company which appears at the Opera House on the 25th inst., St. Louis Globe-Democrat says:

Nip and Tuck, as played by Mr. Harry Webster and company is something out of the beaten track of dramatics. It is a story and performance which gives us interest with each succeeding act. The first two acts are essentially dramatic setting and afford the scope for the dramatic side acting. The last two are brilliant and original. The two dramatics cross fire and expertly and the rapid succession of dramatics which are presented in the last act make Nip and Tuck one of the most enjoyable and in a way the most original entertainments.

The late Bishop H. H. Kavanaugh, of the M. E. Church, South, was born in Clark county, Ky., January 14, 1808. He was appointed to a printer and followed the calling for several years. In 1827 he became a preacher of the Methodist faith and in 1845 was elected a Bishop. Although officiating in many States including California, he considered Kentucky his home, filling pulpits chiefly at Lexington and Louisville. He was an eloquent speaker and one of the most conspicuous and highly esteemed of Kentucky's divines. He funeal took at Louisville on Thursday.

The College of Music of Cincinnati.
The College of Music enters upon its fourth term with some five hundred students taking private lessons. These students represent nearly every State in the Union, from Maine to California. Probably no other school of music in this country, or of the old world, can make such a showing; for five hundred pupils, taking private lessons, are equivalent to three thousand under the class system.

The fifth term of the College is a summer term, beginning July 6th and ending September 14th. For the summer term, a special course of instruction is prepared, for normal as well as for general study, and is arranged for the benefit of teachers who wish to make use of their vacation to lay in new stores of knowledge. The President of the college is George Ward Nichols, and its faculty numbers many of the world's famous teachers.

COUNTY POINTS.
SARASOT.
Where art thou lettering, Oh, spring?

The entire is the press—every man should lay his pen and his heart to the task. Misses Olin and Natalie Bland and Miss Jones, of Texas, college maidens, were present at the Grand March on Saturday at St. Patrick's.

St. Charles Bland celebrated his fifty-third birthday on the 17th inst. and W. T. said his thirty-third birthday on the 18th inst. and with a dining to family and friends.

The union services at the Methodist Church continue with unabated interest. Sister Malloy is the leader and as long as her zeal and earnestness, her patriotism and eloquence are winning all hearts.

The ranks of the widows and widowers are thinning out; two have been taken into matrimony this week. Those who are left are questioning who will be next, and are saying, was she beautiful, was she young, was she what was the secret of her own or expression, which was the cause of her death?

For her sake? She was, where we follow, now let us try to find out why she died. She fell ill, say the shrewd widows "left to die."

The writer has been requested by Mr. A. J. Myer and wife, together with Mr. J. L. Thompson and wife, to write upon the subject of their late husband, Mr. J. L. Thompson during his last illness, extending over a period of two weeks. For which he refused all compensation, also to young lady friends who were so kind and so gentle, so watchful and so full of tender nursing. Although comparatively a stranger he ministered to her, and when she died in the eloquent language of her husband, with his hand in hers, he was the first to say in sympathy with her bereaved friends.

When you come to think of it, it is not odd that literary people prefer a pipe to a cigar. It is harder to smoke a pipe, and it is harder to smoke a cigar. And then it gives them the true essence and flavor of the tobacco. The most famous smokers among all nations and all classes of men agree that the tobacco grown in the Golden Tobacco Belt of North Carolina is the most delicious and refined in the world. Lighter than Turkish, more fragrant than Havana, freer from nicotine and nicotine than any other, it is just what the connoisseur craves and the habitual smoker demands. The very choicest tobacco grows in the Golden Tobacco Belt of North Carolina. It is brought by Blackwell's Durham Tobacco Co. and appears in their celebrated Blackwell's Durham Tobacco. It is known the world over, and the genuine with their trade-mark, now you will be sure of having absolutely pure tobacco.

Disfiguring HUMORS.
Itching and Burning Tortures, Humiliating Eruptions, such as

SALT RHEUM or eczema, psoriasis, scald head, infantile or birth humors, and every form of itching, scaly, pimply, scrofulous, itchy, burning, and oozing eruptions, such as the blood, skin and scalp, with loss of hair, are positively cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

Cuticura Remedy, the new blood purifier, cleanses the blood and perspiration of impurities and poisonous elements, and thus removes the cause.

Cuticura, the great skin cure, instantly allays itching, burning, and oozing eruptions, and cures the skin and scalp, restores the hair, and restores the skin to its natural condition.

Cuticura Soap, an exquisite skin beautifier, and the only true skin beautifier and skin purifier, prepared from CUTICURA, cleanses the skin and scalp, restores the hair, and restores the skin to its natural condition.

It would require this entire paper to do justice to a description of the cures performed by the CUTICURA REMEDIES internally, and CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP externally.

Removes the patches of the hands and of the fingers, very difficult to treat and usually confined to the hands and fingers, and all other eruptions of the skin, nose, and sides of the face.

Scal diseases, loss of hair, itching, and every form of skin disease, head covered with dandruff and scaly patches, especially in children and infants, many of which since birth had been a curse.

Itching, burning, and scaly tortures that cannot be cured by ordinary remedies, scald head, and all other eruptions of the skin, nose, and sides of the face.

Periods, leprosy, and other frightful forms of skin disease, especially in children and infants, many of which since birth had been a curse.
